

stock or bonds; that the market values of the securities of the two companies were about the same, and that, before the deal was made, it was thought best to consult President Roosevelt.
The whole thing looks like a "put-up job." The Steel trust desired to acquire its greatest competitor, but did not dare to thus violate the Sherman law without first securing a permit from the President, which was obtained by representing to him that the absorption would aid in checking the "money panic." As no money was used, and the market values of the securities were about the same and thus the one as good as the other for use as collateral in obtaining loans, it is quite clear that the argument as to checking the panic was, to say the least, insincere. The main question is,
Was the President imposed upon?

Trade and financial affairs are, says Banker Clews, "at a relative standstill." There is a disposition to "wait for fresh signs of encouragement" and "until confidence becomes more settled." As causes, he cites: "A too violent recovery after the panic, the uncertainty connected with tariff revision, and the high prices of many commodities which check consumption and discourage future contracts." As offsets, he cites "the prosperity of our agricultural classes, and the great abundance of cheap money." In his opinion, these conflicting influences "almost counterbalance each other" and "which will prevail cannot be told at this juncture." Yet "many of the conditions necessary for a fresh forward start are present; there is no overproduction, finance and industry are sound, the country is sound, its resources are unimpaired and capital is abundant. All that is wanted is some confidence." With regard to the market itself, Mr. Clews says: At present the outlook of the market is uncertain. Activity would unquestionably be promoted by lower prices, but cheap money and a strong undertone prevent radical weakness. No general collapse is expected, however, is expected until the tariff question is settled.
Congress appears to be impressed with the desirability of prompt action as the extra session is called early in March.

MUCH SUFFERING FROM BITTER COLD
IN NEW YORK CITY
Only Eight Above Zero in New York—Freeze Puts Many Out of Work—2,000 in Bowery Bread Line.

(Special from United Press.)
New York, Feb. 1.—The coldest day of winter hit New York to-day and is accompanied by snow and ice. The temperature is around eight degrees above zero and the weather bureau promises even lower mercurial conditions to-day. The poor and homeless are suffering greatly. The public lodging houses and charitable institutions throughout the city are crowded with the homeless, among them many women and children.
One of the pitiable features of the freeze is that hundreds of homeless men who have been earning money by shoveling snow in the streets have been forced to quit owing to the intense cold and their lack of clothing.
The Bread Line at the Bowery Mission this morning fed 2,000. Several tenement fires early to-day drove hundreds of families out into the bleak streets.
The firemen were hampered by frozen hydrants.

Three years ago general business was inflated and therefore in danger. Today it is down to bed rock and nothing but unexpected calamity can interrupt the course of healthy expansion. Railroad "Empire-building" and reconstruction of finances, together with provision for future needs, are more than ever rendered possible by the plethora of surplus funds. In these circumstances we cannot but feel that price declines in securities will be only temporary. It is a season when more or less unrelenting depression is being witnessed. The manipulation, where it exists, has borne the evidence of a master hand, which some of the cleverest observers in the Street have failed to identify. Investment facts are the underlying support of the market, however, and when conditions are considered in the light of the many to which we refer, though now temporarily directed toward a levelling of prices to some extent, must turn for the future to constructive cooperation with natural forces.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL Health is Worth Saving, and Some Bridgeport People Know How to Save It.
Many Bridgeport people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, and there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger from all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a Bridgeport citizen's recommendation:
A. H. McCarthy, 1286 East Main St., Bridgeport, Conn., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills for years with the best of results and I feel that I am in a position to recommend them. This remedy is a reliable one and acts up to every claim made for it. I suffered from a constant aching across the small of my back, accompanied by pains through my limbs and hips. I began their use and found relief. My wife has also taken this remedy for similar troubles and has received the best of results."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

From the evidence given by G. W.
Perkins, a member of the J. P. Morgan & Co., before the Senate Judiciary committee, Saturday, it appears that the concern which disposed of the Tennessee Coal & Iron Co. to the Steel trust, was a firm of brokers; that, although this firm was said to be in financial difficulties, there was no cash payment but merely an exchange of
